Little Swamps' Story

Our first purchase from Little Swamps, an Estate owned and operated by Doris Tuiyott. Doris is known for being meticulous with the care of her coffee trees, and processing details. Those close to her joke that she “sings lullabies to the coffee trees,” and Doris responds “when you talk to the plant, it smiles back at you.” Doris is known as a master collaborator. As an example, when she was starting she recruited women in her community to help - offering them books, shoes, daycare programs, and coffee seedlings, alongside their wages, so they could plant their own coffee.
